

Stephen Nutbeam, Shooting Coach coming December 12-19, 2009 Rio Brazos in Simonton, TX

The 2005 Pan American FITASC Champion

Stephen Nutbeam has been a full time shooting coach and instructor since 1986. Born in Winchester Hampshire England started shooting at age 9. Stephen studied under David Olive at Apsley Shooting Ground who had himself, studied under the great Percy Stanbury. As a coach, Stephen decided to take up competitive clay shooting and reached the top classes in Sporting Clays, FITASC, Skeet and Trap in just his first year. Royal Berkshire Shooting Ground employed Stephen as head instructor for four years making Stephen's coaching hours run over 20,000. Now, Stephen has a shooting ground of his own where he puts on Sporting and FITASC competitions and teaches all over the world.

A few of Stephen's coaching results are:

Richard Faulds MBE, Olympic Gold 2000, World Sporting and FITASC Champion & all British Championships.

Ben Brunton, World FITASC Champion 2000

Chris Biddlecomb, World FITASC Junior Champion 2001

George Parsons, World FITASC Champion Veteran 2002 & World Sporting Clay Champion Veteran

Craig Hill, Gonzalo Vargas & Nadim Nasir, All American Sporting Clay Team Members

Pricing for Individual or Group instruction:

Tuition includes instruction only. $125 per hour, for individual or up to 3 people in a group.

Plus targets fees. Stephen is also available for private lessons at your club.

Contact:

Mr. Nutbeam visits the U.S. several times each year to coach. Call Connie Parker to book lessons. Phone: 713-854-5876, email: connie@shootpromtions.com