

Rio Brazos

18th Novt 2006

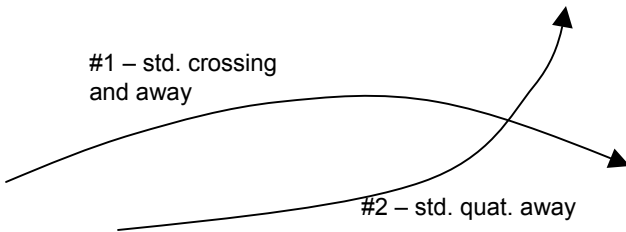

Station #1

Cage position about 35 yards to both birds. Cage was elevated on mound shooting flat and slightly downward. Traps were behind trees, partially hidden.

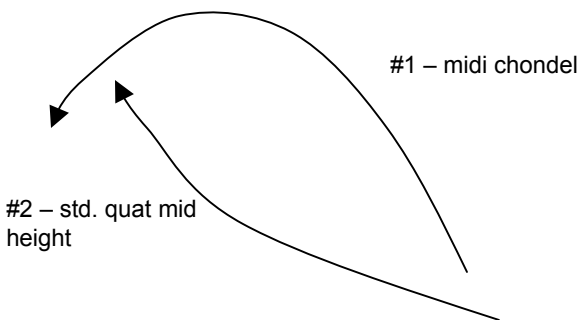

Station #2

Cage position about 30 yards to bateau. Traps were below cage position. Bateau was fast and rising. Second bird looping and coming in to 30 yards.

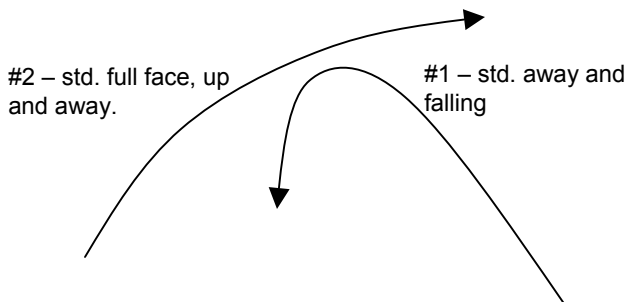

Station #3

Cage position was elevated and 35 yards to both birds. First std. crossing, dropping into water and slightly going away. Second std. quat. At eye level.

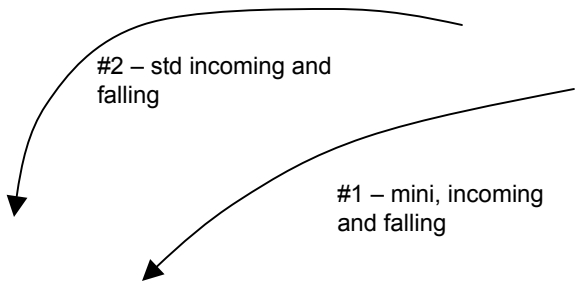

Station #4

5 rep pairs – midi chondel at 25 yards. Std. quat. away at 25 yards.

Station #5

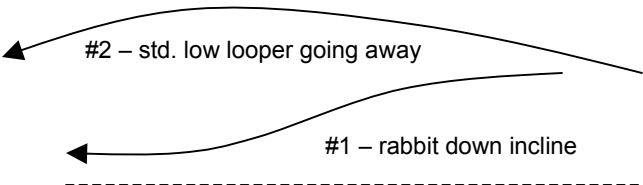

Std on edge away, falling and quat. 30 yards. Second std. going up and away through trees, showing full face.

Station #6

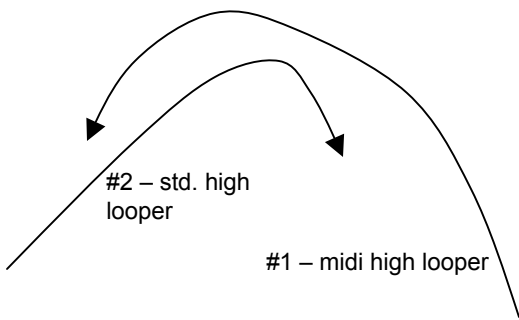

(station safety issue – reset into crossers)

Incoming and dropping mini at a distance of 35 yards. Incoming and dropping std. 40 yards.

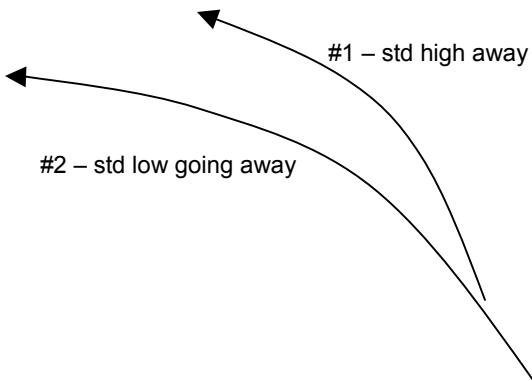

Station #7

Rabbit running down incline and going away. Low and slow bird looping and going away. Rabbit bounce inconsistent and some high grass.

Station #8

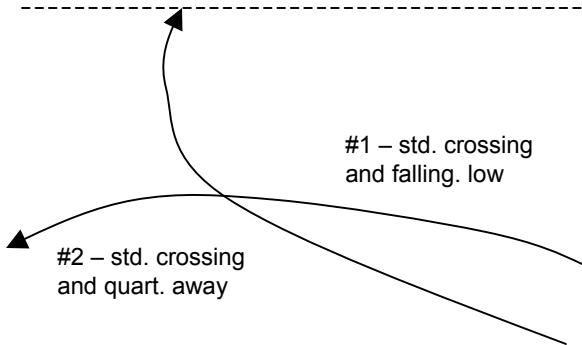

Midi – high looper at 35 - 40 yards, full belly. And coming in slightly. Std at 45 – 50 yards (wind effect) looper. Both targets coming from other side or lake.

Station #9

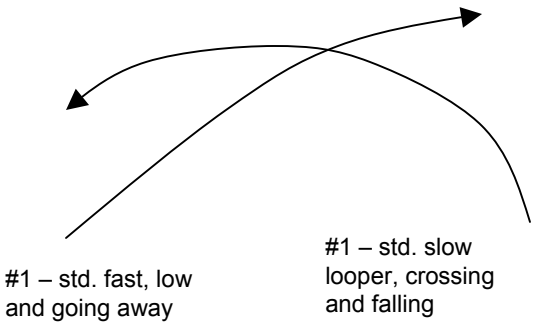

True pair

2 std – going away – trap shot – on edge. 25 and 35 yard shot. Need to be shot quick and early.

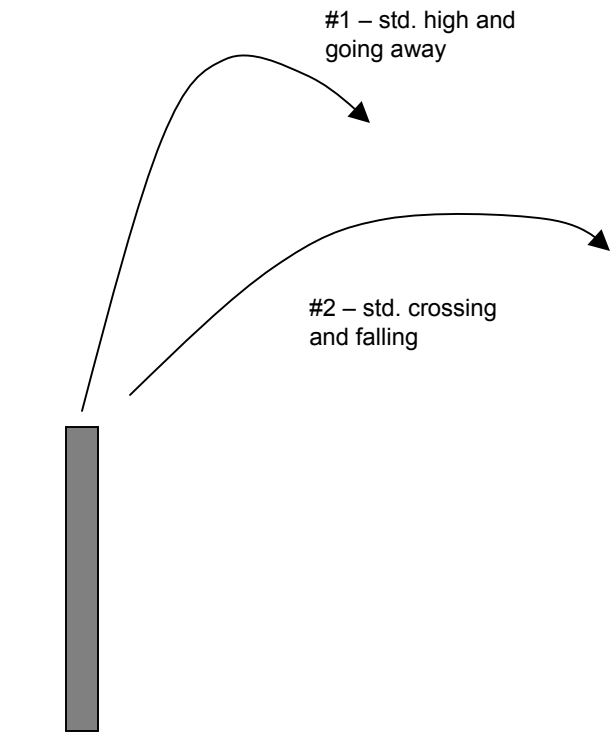

Station #10

Std – low, crossing and falling into water. Showing face. Std – mid height crossing and quat, Both traps hidden behind a low mound and trees.

Station #11
 Std- slow, looping and crossing. Falling into water.
 Std – fast and low, going away. Distance to both targets 35 yards.

Station #12
 Tower shot – true pair
 Two std targets – up and going away and a crosser/dropping into trees.